HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Division 2 will meet Wednesday evening and Division 1 on Thursday evening.
Division 3's meeting will be postponed next Monday on account of the holiday date.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Duluth will conduct a booth at the bazaar for St. James church.
Dave Reilly's augmented choir is improving rapidly and will make a hit at the next initiation.

State Secretary John Hayes appeals for an increase of 60 per cent. in Indiana's membership.
Visits from members of sister divisions always add interest to the proceedings and meetings.

State President Callan and degree team from Milwaukee initiated twenty-two candidates at Oconto, Wis.
The New York County Board already has arrangements under way for next St. Patrick's day celebration.

The carnival of the St. Louis Ladies' Auxiliary, held this week in Hibernian Park, was a pronounced success.
A large addition was made to the Ladies' Auxiliary at the recent semi-annual conferring of degrees in Chicago.

St. Clair county, Ill., initiated two classes recently and increased the county membership about 20 per cent.
There are now over fifty candidates awaiting initiation in Division 4, about half of whom have been obligated.

Through the efforts of the Ancient Order the Irish history movement has made great progress in Philadelphia.
The Hibernians of Utica, N. Y., will have their big field day on July 15. For this event they have secured Utica Park.

National President McLaughlin has been invited to make the address at the annual Irish day celebration at Cincinnati on August 15.
Division 4 donated a ten-dollar gold piece to its chaplain, Rev.
Father Kealy, for his booth at the St. Louis Bertrand lawn fete.

The Ancient Order and Ladies' Auxiliary presented their State Chaplain, Rev. J. J. Connolly, of Petersburg, Ill., an automobile.
President Tom Quinn and his associates of the Hibernian Social Club are working hard for the success of their moonlight excursion.

New York Hibernians have secured Sulzer's Harlem River Park for a summer's night festival that will continue through the first week in August.
Hibernians from all over the State are expected in Denver, when the order will have one of the largest Fourth of July celebrations ever held there.

Twenty new members were last week added to the Ladies' Auxiliary at Quincy, Ill. The initiation was conducted by Mrs. Mary McWhorter, the State President.
Division 4 of Jersey City donates a book to the proposer of each candidate secured, and in this way had seventy-eight new applicants proposed and accepted.

The death of Capt. John B. Murphy has taken from the Jeffersonville division one of its leading spirits, one who put the Ancient Order before all others.
Thomas Kennedy and Martin Gillmore were obligated by President Hennessy at the meeting of Division 4 on Monday evening, and E. F. Toomey was elected to membership.

INTENTION FOR JULY.
Our Holy Father has recommended the members of the Apostleship of Prayer to pray during the month of July for the victims of the war.
Never, we believe, in the history of mankind have there been so many victims of war among civilized nations. Millions of men are engaged in deadly combat on the battlefields of Europe. The wounded, many of them maimed for life, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. Who can think of the awful sufferings on the field and in the hospitals without joining in the Holy Father's recommendation to pray for them?
Again what shall we say of the sad fate of the other hundreds of thousands who are prisoners of war in foreign countries, far from their homes and their loved ones, in the midst of people who find it hard to conceal their bitter hatred and who look on these men as enemies, now become an additional burden?

Most of all are our hearts moved with pity for the countless widows and orphans, who are now obliged to face life without the protection and support of loving husbands and fathers. Their cries and their prayers are going up to heaven, pleading for pardon from God for those who are responsible for the dreadful carriage and all the other calamities that follow in the wake of war. Shall we not heed the Pope's request and with all the earnestness of our hearts join with our brethren of the Apos-tleship all over the world in fervent prayer for these victims? Let us pray to God, our Father, may grant them grace to bear their woes patiently and inspire them to offer themselves as victims of expiation for the sins that have brought such punishment on the nations. The thought of their sufferings will urge us to redouble our prayers for peace.

JOLLY CHILDREN'S GAME.
Here is a game in which all may participate: Select ten small articles, say nuts, corn kernels, wrapped bonbons. Seat the players in two lines opposite each other, and at the end of the line and the foot place a table or tablet. The game is to pass the articles, one at a time, to each player until all are on the table, the other side to pass them back down the line. This must be done rapidly, the side making the most time having the prize. This is loads of fun, and children love it.

AMERICAN CHRONOLOGY.
Timely Record of Some Memorable Events in the Catholic History of America.

July 4, 1830—Cornerstone of the first college of Spring Hill laid by the Right Rev. Michael Portier, Bishop of Mobile, Ala.; college opened for students following November.
July 5, 1679—First mass within limits of present city of Buffalo celebrated by Father Louis Hennepin. Recollect, on board the Griffin, the first vessel to sail the lakes, then moored in Black Rock harbor, near Austin street.
July 6, 1851—Jesuits' Church of St. Francis Xavier, West Sixteenth street, New York, dedicated by Archbishop Hughes; College of St. Francis Xavier opened in September, 1851.
July 8, 1754—Death of Father Hippolyte Collet, Recollect; arrived in Canada as a missionary in 1741; chaplain at Presqu'ile and Riviere aux Boeufs; silver chalice, supposed to be his, dug up in 1804, near the ruins of the old fort and purchased by Mrs.
Van Kirl, a Catholic, to save it from profanation.
July 9, 1851—Academy of the Sacred Heart, New York, incorporated; originally located at Houston and Mulberry streets, Afterward St. Catherine's Convent of Mercy; moved to Astoria in 1844 and to Manhattanville in 1847; first Superior Mother Elizabeth Gallatin.
July 10, 1791—The Sulpician Fathers Francis Charles Nagot, Anthony Garnier, Michael Leva-doux and John Tessier arrived in Baltimore; purchased the "One Mile Tavern," where later they opened St. Mary's, the first American Seminary.

The Rev. Patrick J. Moran, administrator, Liscannon, has been appointed pastor of Claregalway.
James T. McGee, Roodstown, was co-opted a member of the Louth County Council in room of James Halpenny, Ardee, who resigned.
The New Ross Urban Council passed a vote of sympathy with the Right Rev. Dean Kavanagh, New Ross, on the death of his sister.
Keen regret is felt in Tipperary at the death in his eightieth year of John Fogarty. He was one of the local Fenian leaders in the sixties.
Emigration to America has again started in Mayo. Over fifty young men between the ages of eighteen and thirty recently left the county for the United States.
Daniel Ronayne and Thomas Cummings have been co-opted members of the Queenstown Urban Council in the places of Sir James Long and Clayton Love.
On the occasion of his taking over the pastoral charge of Castlecomer the Very Rev. L. Beirne was waited on by the teachers of the parish, who presented him with an address.
Mrs. Kate Kelly, Stapleton, died suddenly while marketing in Naas.
She had suffered from heart trouble, and her death is believed to have been hastened by the intense heat which prevailed.
The old parish church at Bally-scullion, which stands close to Church Island, Lough Beg, a well known place of pilgrimage, is being restored by Rev. Father McNamara, Bellaghy, County Derry.
Very Rev. Gabriel Purcell, of been appointed Prior of Chamelle order at Loughrea coming triennial period, of Very Rev. Joseph Coen, Superior of St. Mary's, Drogheda.

stewart, Rev. Father J. McRory, cows on the roadway and was thrown from the machine. He was injured about the head and shoulders and is at present confined to his room.

The death of Patrick Brick, Trillick, is much regretted. In his younger days he amassed a considerable fortune in Africa. His beautiful residence which he built at the Kerries was a landmark where he dispensed true Irish hospitality.

CONSECRATED.
The Most Rev. Edward Patrick Roche, D. D., was consecrated as Archbishop of the Newfoundland diocese at St. John's on Tuesday.
He is said to be the youngest Archbishop in the Roman Catholic church and is the first to be consecrated as Archbishop in Newfoundland. He was born in Placentia forty-two years ago.

BELL SERVED WELL.
The great bronze bell that rang out the end of English supremacy in the Mississippi Valley when Gen.
George Rogers Clark, of Louisville, seized Old Kaskaskia, July 4, 1778, will probably become the property of the Illinois Historical Society.
King Louis XV. presented it to the church at Kaskaskia. It was cast in 1741 and placed in Kaskaskia church in 1742.

FOR WOMAN'S EYE.
The craze for stripes grows more pronounced as the season advances.
Stockings with stripes running round are one of the latest revivals.
Whole collars of cretonne are extremely attractive on blue and pink linen blouses.
Never was women's footwear so freakish and so lamentably abused as this season.
The fall will be a season of fancy gloves, as the spring was a season of fancy shoes.
The revival most enthusiastic is the revival of orandy, with the plain sheer white leading.
The latest manipulation of fashion is the fad for full skirts, the fullest we have had for ever so long.
For the many outing occasions, travel, camping, sports, the blouse and skirt offer many attractions.
There is no end to the vogue of the blouse, the matter of fit and adjustment being easily accomplished.
An altogether admirable attitude characterizes the special designs invented for little girls now-days.

POTATO DOUGHNUTS.
Two cups of mashed potatoes; when cold add one and one-half cups sugar, two eggs, one scant cup milk, three teaspoons cream (or melted butter), one teaspoon salt, one teaspoon lemon, one-half teaspoon nutmeg grated (small), four teaspoons baking powder, flour enough to roll.
